

Economic Development and International Cooperation in Asia.

Nowadays we cannot understand the world economy without considering Asian society and economy. Asian countries are developing in their own ways and made new problems such as inequality and human rights and so on. This symposium, presenting the social and economic issues of Asian countries, explores the possibilities of international cooperation among them.

Opening Remarks 10:00~10:05 Professor Kato Michiya (Director of ACRC, OSU)

Morning Session 10:05~12:30

Chair Professor Han Bock Sang (Dean of Graduate School of Economics, OSU)

1. Professor Kamchai Laimit (Faculty of Economics, The International University of Kagoshima)
Thai Economy under Recent Political Turmoil
2. Ms. Zhai Yalei (Graduate School of Economics, Kyoto University)
Crop Substitution, Alternative Development and Rural Socio-Economic Transformations : The Case of Kokang, Myanmar.
3. Professor Bi Shihong (Deputy Director of The Institute for Southeast Asian Studies, Yunnan University)
Possibility of Cooperation between Japan and China in the Development of the Mekong Region.
4. Mr Furuya Shinsuke (Associate Professor of Faculty of Economics, OSU) and
Dr Li Zejian (Associate Professor of Faculty of Economics, OSU)
Innovation of Japan's Model in Using Metal 3D Printers.

Responses by Professor Wang Jingbin (Dean of Faculty of Economics, OSU) and
Dr Kigoshi Yoshinori (Associate Professor of Faculty of Economics, OSU)

Afternoon Session 13:30~16:25

Chair Professor Kubo Makoto (Faculty of Economics, OSU)

1. Mr Koizumi Satoshi (Executive Director and Secretary General of Good Neighbors Japan)
A Grass-root International Cooperation by NGO
2. Professor Cho Won Guon (Dean of Graduate School, Woosong University)
Importance and Direction of International Education Development Cooperation : The Case of EDC between LAO PDR and Korea.
3. Professor Yang Songcai (Director of Research Center for Human Rights, Guangzhou University)
The Social Development in China from the Perspective of Human Rights : Stories of My Own Experience.
4. Professor Yi Hai Gyun (Korea University of Technology and Education)
Korea's ODA and NGOs.

Responses by Professor Takagami Shinichi (Faculty of Economics, OSU) and Professor Kimura Atsushi (Faculty of Economics, OSU)

Coffee Break 16:25~16:45

Question and Discussion 16:45~17:45

Chair Professor Tajima Toshio (Faculty of Economics, OSU)

Ending Remarks Professor Han Bock Sang (Dean of Graduate School of Economics, OSU)

Date and Place 28 January 2015 (Wed.) at Osaka Sangyo University
Umeda Satellite Campus (19th Floor , Osaka Station 3 Building)